(1) 9 Wellington Street Built 1878

Prominent brackets support the hip roof of this two-storey Italianate home in painted brick. It features a square bay window, located in the projecting wing on the right, and the porch is classic Greek.

Original owner Achsah Ermatinger

13 Wellington Street Built 1881

This Gothic house has some Italianate features, such as the ornate vergeboard on the dormer and extending wing. The hip roof is surfaced in patterned slate. Elaborate stone eyebrows surmount the paired windows on the second level.

Original owner Daniel Tait

72 Metcalfe Street Built 1875

A large two-storey brick Gothic with Italianate overtones and rounded arched windows. Note the sharply peaked roof and the intricate treillage. Original owner James Hutchinson

(4) 73 Metcalfe Street Built 1874

This impressive Italianate house has a central Gothic arched window centered at the attic level. The house was moved from its original location at the Grand Central Hotel in 1882.

Original owner John M. Green

77 Metcalfe Street Built 1850

Benjamin Drake built this Georgian neo-classic house on his farm in 1850. It has a five bay front and typical hip roof. The central door is side lighted surmounted by an elliptical fan light. Drake gave the land for our present Court House. Drake Street was the original farm lane.

91 Metcalfe Street Built 1871

Known as the Griffin-Dingman house. This two-storey neo-classic has a greek revival porch supported by Ionic columns. George Dingman was the publisher of the St. Thomas Times-Journal. The house was originally built for Elizabeth Ann Arkell.

(7) 95 Metcalfe Street Built 1858

(Coyne House) This Georgian neoclassic house has a three bay front. The centre bay projects forward as a Greek temple. In 1890, Dr. James Coyne, first President and founder of the Ontario Historical Society and local Registrar of Deeds, purchased this house. His grandson was Governor of the Bank of Canada. Another grandson, Robert Taylor, was former Chairman of Ontario Hydro. A grand daughter, Ann Richards, was the first airline stewardess of Air Canada, previously known as T.C.A.

Original owner Wm. Kains

105 Metcalfe Street Built 1872

A white brick Italianate home with elaborate bracketing. Massive twostorey bay windows flank the central double door. The full width veranda has classic details, such as Ionic columns.

Original owner Joseph McAdams

2 Prince Albert Street Built 1892

A Queen Anne style home with many features. Note the varied roof line, small balconies, and variety of windows.

Original owner Ann Laing

25 Margaret Street Built 1875

A two-storey frame Gothic. A projecting wing supports a three windowed bay surmounted by an elaborate scrolled vergeboard. Original owner David D. Rowland

20 Margaret Street Built 1871

A majestic two-storey Georgian frame home with Italianate bracketing. The doors on the first and second level are arched in the Italian manner. Original owner Alfred Allworth

96 Metcalfe Street Built 1872

The Harding-Ball house is a twostorey brick Italianate with a three bay front. The gable end is double bracketed. The original veranda starts at the double door wrapping around the north extension. Original owner Henry Broderick

92 Metcalfe Street Built 1875

A two-storey frame Gothic with a three peaked roof and a two-storey bay window to the right of the door. An unusual feature is the Doric columns.

Original owner James Kilpatrick

13 Margaret Street Built 1878

(Handford House) A two-storey Gothic with a pleasing scolled vergeboard. Three bay window is on the southwest side of the projecting wing. Mr. Handford served two terms as Mayor of St.Thomas.

3 Drake Street

by elaborate treillage.

This gracious old frame Georgian originally had a "Widows Walk " at the top of the hip roof, surmounted home has a three bay facade. It

Original owner James O'Shea

Original owner Elizabeth King

Original owner Minnie Smith

Built 1876

(McLachlin House) This large

1 Wellington Street Built 1878

mansion in the Queen Anne style has many features. It has turrets, scroll work, bracketing, and dormers. Built by Archibald McLachlin, who was the founder of the Canadian Home Journal, in 1859. The home is still owned by his descendants.

97 Stanley Street Built 1932

(St. Thomas Smith) A typical 1930's design, this home was built for St. Thomas Smith as his studio residence. The stuccoed exterior has a Spanish feeling with the half circled door. The main feature is the story and a half window which provided studio light. This room has the cathedral ceiling of houses built 50 years later. He became a noted artist internationally.

Prepared by

The St. Thomas Municipal Heritage Committee © 1991 Box 520, City Hall, St. Thomas N5P 3V7

ST. THOMAS ONTARIO

WALKING TOUR OF COURTHOUSE AREA HERITAGE HOMES

5 Wellington Street Built 1878 This distinguished large two-storey brick Italianate style home has the characteristic hip roof and notable bracketing. The rounded windows have eyebrow inserts of cut stone.

